

26th CEESA Conference March 17-19, 2016 Istanbul, Turkey

TRANSFORMING EDUCATION THROUGH PERSONALIZING LEARNING

Keynote Speaker
Greg Curtis

Greg Curtis is an author and independent education consultant. He is currently based in Beijing and has spent much of his career working with international schools around the world in all-school capacities. Greg has been a technology director, a curriculum and professional learning director and a strategic planner for schools in Europe, North America, Australia and Asia. He currently works with organizations such as EdLeader21, New England Association of Schools and Colleges, MacTighe and Associates Consulting, Ed-Tect Inc. and schools around the world. His work focuses on long-term, systemsbased change in schools and districts around meaningful modern learning.

- ▷ Pre-Conference: "It's Not Your Dad's Strategic Plan"
- ▷ Keynote: "Learning Personalized: Catalyzing A Vision"

FEATURING

- One day of pre-conference sessions on Thursday March 17.
- 2nd Annual Learning InnovatED Un-Conference on Thursday March 17.
- Invited presenters Anne van Dam, Fran Prolman, John Notten, Eric Demore, and Vicki Hannah Lein. CEESA Educators will also be presenters.
- Pre and post tours; opportunities to visit historic and cultural sites in and around Istanbul
- Literacy Cohort; Literacy Coaches Job-A-Like; Athletic Director/Athletic Coordinator's courses;

All information can be found at www.ceesa.org as from September.

- Online Conference registration link will be operable in October. Deadline March 1st.
- Hotel registration will be launched in October. Deadline February 1st. For Questions please contact Kathy Stetson kathy@ceesa.org or Ingrid Raben ingrid@ceesa.org

Conference Registration Information: Call for workshop "2nd Annual Learning InnovatED Un-Conference" and Teacher Presenters is online. Deadline November 2.

RENAISSANCE ISTANBUL BOSPHORUS HOTEL

Offering stunning views of the Bosphorus, the hotel is located on the European side of Istanbul, in Besiktas. It is in walking distance to key Istanbul shopping malls, business centers, the Bosphorus' main boat harbor and nearby attractions: Taksim Square; the Old City; Saint Sophia Museum, Sultanahmet Mosque, Topkapi Palace and Grand Bazaar.

Online Hotel Reservation (link will be launched in October). Each participant/exhibitor is responsible for booking and paying her/his hotel reservation. The hotel guarantees a room block of a number of rooms, until February 1st, 2016. Rates: Single room € 145 / Double room € 165. Room rates are per room per night and includes buffet breakfast, internet and 8% VAT.

