2017 FEB 10-11

Our objective is to increase WL teachers' repertoire of assessment tools and techniques, especially those that are authentic in nature. We also hope to further moderate our understanding of proficiency levels and provide exemplars and practical round table grading experiences.

Teachers of all languages are welcome!

The American International School of Budapest and CEESA will provide lunch on both days. There is no cost for the job alike.

AISB will provide a booking form for hotel upon registration. Participants should use this form to make their reservation and secure the group discount rate.
