

CEESA
SCHOOL SAFETY & SECURITY INSTITUTE
NOVEMBER 30 – DECEMBER 2, 2018

A CEESA sponsored workshop designed especially for those responsible for safety and security at the schools within CEESA. Get advanced training by Mike Johnson and interact with your peers on topics of major importance and mutual interest as listed below:

Topics:

RISK ASSESSMENT PROCESS

Learn how to identify threats, hazards and vulnerabilities and what steps are needed to mitigate the effects of these on your school. The lessons learned will be reinforced through a practical exercise.

FACILITY REVIEW AND THE STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

This relates to soft target grants and working with Embassy/Consulate staff on longer term planning for funding and support - particularly with the wide spectrum of a facility enhancements that have been adjudicated over the last decade or so at all CEESA schools (radios, bomb protection film, safe havens, video surveillance, etc.).

THE EMERGENCY PLANNING PROCESS

How to review, update and/or prepare usable emergency response plans for your school. These plans, procedures and protocols will create a foundation for your emergency response capabilities. Table Top Exercises will be conducted to stimulate the emergency response thought process as it relates to your plans.

SECURITY GUARD FORCE MANAGEMENT

Topics covered include; staff screening and vetting principles, contract management, operational deployment, scheduling and training based on industry best practices.

SUNDAY MORNING ROUNDTABLE – ACCESS REGULATIONS

An open discussion to identify common concerns and solutions to challenges of access control in an open learning environment.
