

CEESA CONFERENCE 2011

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

18 – 19 MARCH 2011

Budapest, the capital as well as the largest city of Hungary has about 1.7 million inhabitants. The city occupies both banks of the river Danube. Before the unification in 1873 the right bank was named Buda and the left bank was called Pest. It hosts several World Heritage Sites such as the Buda Castle Quarter, Andrásy Avenue, Heroes' Square and The Millennium Underground Railway (the second oldest in the world).

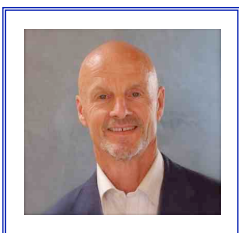

FRIDAY 18 MARCH

International School Services (ISS) sponsored Keynote Speaker : Thomas Guskey presents “Grading and Reporting Student Learning: Effective Policies and Practices”

Thomas Guskey, PhD, is professor of educational psychology in the College of Education at the University of Kentucky. A graduate of the University of Chicago, he served as director of research and development for Chicago Public Schools and was the first director of the Center for the Improvement of Teaching and Learning, a national research center. Dr. Guskey is the author/editor of numerous books and book chapters, articles, and professional papers on educational measurement, evaluation, assessment, and grading.
