

Session	Seminar Title	Presented by	Description	Max. no of participants	Room #	Duration
FRIDAY 15.15 - 16.15
1	Crimes of Fashion	St. Petersburg	It is near common knowledge that many clothing manufacturers engage in a host of questionable activities ranging from unethical to horrendous. Potential examples include child labor, unfair trade, human trafficking, and lack of environmental awareness. Through a series of hands-on activities with the audience the students leading this seminar will track the life of a commodity from manufacture to purchase, bring to light some of the most unsettling practices of major-brand clothing manufacturers, address the difficulties of being a responsible consumer, and offer alternatives and solutions to this seemingly inescapable dilemma.	Unlimited	H022	45 min.
1	Everyone can be a Super Hero!	Zagreb	Multi-media presentation including self defense, proactive daily habits, effect of crime on victim's family, social factors that promote criminal thinking	Unlimited	H015	45 min.
1	What Makes a Great Villain?	Prague 1	I cheat, you cheat Risk versus reward, how do we choose to cheat or not? What conditions make it easier or more difficult for us to decide to cheat? In this session, we will explore why cheating happens and the implications of our cheating instincts.	8	H021	45 min.
1	International Drug Laws 90min Seminar	Latvia	The students will at first present information, statistics, laws, cases regarding drug laws in different countries. They will also include a history of how some of these drugs came to the market and the governmental reaction them. They will then role-play a court case between neighboring countries that have very different attitudes to drugs. In the end there will be an open discussion run by the students	20 Students only	H114	90 min. (60 + 30mins)
1	Hey Kids, come to watch our presentation , free candy!	Bucharest	Raising awareness about pedophilia through videos and open discussion.	20 Students only	H115	90 min. (60 + 30mins)

Friday 16:30-17:30
2	Hey Kids, come to watch our presentation , free candy!	Bucharest (Continued)	Raising awareness about pedophilia through videos and open discussion.	20 Students only	H115	30 mins
2	Prevalence of Human Trafficking worldwide	Moscow	Crimes in human trafficking cover a number of areas, including the sex trade, slavery, and the sale of human body parts. How much do you know about this widespread crime? This seminar will raise awareness of facts, and relate true stories and personal accounts to bring the facts to life. What is being done to stop these crimes? How can you help? How can you keep yourself safe?	20	H022	45 min.
2	Eye Witness Testifying	Warsaw 1	This workshop deals with eyewitness testimony, its function, benefits and flaws. It will be composed of two parts: An information session (a powepoint Presentation and a video) and a discussion during which participants will be able to present their opinions on the subject and debate them.	20	H015	60 min.
2	International Drug Laws	Latvia (Continued)	The students will at first present information, statistics, laws, cases regarding drug laws in different countries. They will also include a history of how some of these drugs came to the market and the governmental reaction them. They will then role-play a court case between neighboring countries that have very different attitudes to drugs. In the end there will be an open discussion run by the students	Continued Students only 20	H114	30 min.
2	Sex, Drugs, Alcohol = Crime ????	Sofia	This seminar will explore different aspects of the definition of crime as related to our actions as teenagers. This session is composed of an interactive game “Never Have I Ever” and open discussion.	20 Students only	Theatre	30 min.
2	“To Hate or Not to Hate”	Budapest	The students will present an interactive workshop covering the topic of Hate Crimes. Each student from AISB will lead their own group that will focus on one of the following types of Hate Crimes; Race, Gender and Sexual Orientation. The small groups will receive facts/data prepared by the AISB leaders and then as a group, will put together a presentation about how to combat this type of crime. This presentation piece may take the form of a cartoon, a poem, a skit, or a newspaper article. These will then be presented to the group at large.	15	H021	45 min

SATURDAY 9.30 - 10.30
3	Innocent until proven guilty	Helsinki	Through an interactive court case, where the audience will act as the jury, we will show the basics of how a court case and legal system works.	Unlimited Students only	H022	45 min.
3	Internet Piracy	Krakow	We will be going over a brief history of Internet Piracy and some of the major cases that have made the news. We will discuss what is and isn't considered internet piracy and lead a discussion about whether downloading material should be legal or banned.	25 Students only	H114	30 min.
3	Unproportional Sentences to Crimes	Warsaw 2	Are the 150 years that Bernie Madoff got a reasonable and proportional sentence? Should companies have to pay for people's own choices? Is the death sentence a proportional sentence for a crime? Does the jury have the right to decide the fate of a man's life? Discussion about unproportional sentences to crimes.	unlimited	H015	45 - 60 min.
3	"To Hate or Not to Hate"	Budapest	The students will present an interactive workshop covering the topic of Hate Crimes. Each student from AISB will lead their own group that will focus on one of the following types of Hate Crimes; Race, Gender and Sexual Orientation. The small groups will receive facts/data prepared by the AISB leaders and then as a group, will put together a presentation about how to combat this type of crime. This presentation piece may take the form of a cartoon, a poem, a skit, or a newspaper article. These will then be presented to the group at large.	15	H021	45 min
3	You Be the Judge: An Act	Belgrade	How does the punishment fit the crime? In this seminar the audience will individually explore the process of sentencing a convict. The audience will learn of actual famous crime cases and will be asked to consider a 'resentencing' of the criminals. This process will allow the members of the audience to consider the interpretation of law.	Unlimited	H115	90 min. (60 + 30mins)
SATURDAY 10.45 - 11.45
4	You Be the Judge: An Act	Belgrade (Continued)	How does the punishment fit the crime? In this seminar the audience will individually explore the process of sentencing a convict. The audience will learn of actual famous crime cases and will be asked to consider a 'resentencing' of the criminals. This process will allow the members of the audience to consider the interpretation of law.	Unlimited	H115	30 mins
4	Mock Trial	Warsaw 3	A fun way of looking at how the human behavior can create problems when examining a trial. Crime is no laughing subject, but giving an example of how things work when there are problems with the witnesses can show what any serious court case is like. This is a seminar that is very loose and has an interacting feel to it.	35 Students only.	H015	45 min.
4	I cheat, You cheat	Prague 2	In this session define that elements best characterize evil. Then decide in a group discussion who is the greatest villain of all times.	10	H021	45 min.

4	International Drug Laws	Latvia	The students will at first present information, statistics, laws, cases regarding drug laws in different countries. They will also include a history of how some of these drugs came to the market and the governmental reaction them. They will then role-play a court case between neighboring countries that have very different attitudes to drugs. In the end there will be an open discussion run by the students	20 Students only	H114	90 min. (60 + 30mins)
4	Hey Kids, come to watch our presentation , free candy!	Bucharest	Raising awareness about pedophilia through videos and open discussion.	20 Students only	H022	60 mins
SATURDAY 12.00 - 13.00
5	Hey Kids, come to watch our presentation , free candy!	Bucharest (Continued)	Raising awareness about pedophilia through videos and open discussion.	20 Students only	H022	90 min. (60 + 30mins)
5	Everyone can be a Super Hero!	Zagreb	Multi-media presentation including self defense, proactive daily habits, effect of crime on victim's family, social factors that promote criminal thinking	unlimited	H015	45 min.
5	Eye Witness Testifying	Warsaw 1	This workshop deals with eyewitness testimony, its function, benefits and flaws. It will be composed of two parts: An information session (a powepoint Presentation and a video) and a discussion during which participants will be able to present their opinions on the subject and debate them.	20	H021	60 min.
5	International Drug Laws	Latvia (Continued)	The students will at first present information, statistics, laws, cases regarding drug laws in different countries. They will also include a history of how some of these drugs came to the market and the governmental reaction them. They will then role-play a court case between neighboring countries that have very different attitudes to drugs. In the end there will be an open discussion run by the students	20	H114	30 min,
5	Organ Trafficking	Krakow	This seminar will introduce the topic of illegal organ trafficking. We will discuss such topics as where in the world this takes place, why it happens, and the problems that it causes. We would also like to lead a discussion about whether people should be allowed to legally sell their organs to prevent some of these crimes from occurring.	25 Students Only	H115	30 min.

SATURDAY 15.15 - 16.15
6	What Makes a Great Villain?	Prague 1	I cheat, you cheat Risk versus reward, how do we choose to cheat or not? What conditions make it easier or more difficult for us to decide to cheat? In this session, we will explore why cheating happens and the implications of our cheating instincts.	8	H021	45 min.
6	Prevalence of Human Trafficking worldwide	Moscow	Crimes in human trafficking cover a number of areas, including the sex trade, slavery, and the sale of human body parts. How much do you know about this widespread crime? This seminar will raise awareness of facts, and relate true stories and personal accounts to bring the facts to life. What is being done to stop these crimes? How can you help? How can you keep yourself safe?	20	H022	45 min.
6	Unproportional Sentences to Crimes	Warsaw 2	Are the 150 years that Bernie Madoff got a reasonable and proportional sentence? Should companies have to pay for people's own choices? Is the death sentence a proportional sentence for a crime? Does the jury have the right to decide the fate of a man's life? Discussion about unproportional sentences to crimes.	unlimited	H015	45-60 min.
6	Sex, Drugs, Alcohol = Crime ????	Sofia	This seminar will explore different aspects of the definition of crime as related to our actions as teenagers. This session is composed of an interactive game "Never Have I Ever" and open discussion.	20 Students only	H114	30 min.
6	You Be the Judge: An Act	Belgrade	How does the punishment fit the crime? In this seminar the audience will individually explore the process of sentencing a convict. The audience will learn of actual famous crime cases and will be asked to consider a 'resentencing' of the criminals. This process will allow the members of the audience to consider the interpretation of law.	Unlimited	H115	90 min. (60 + 30mins)

SATURDAY 16.30 - 17.30

7	You Be the Judge: An Act	Belgrade (Continued)	How does the punishment fit the crime? In this seminar the audience will individually explore the process of sentencing a convict. The audience will learn of actual famous crime cases and will be asked to consider a 'resentencing' of the criminals. This process will allow the members of the audience to consider the interpretation of law.	Unlimited	H115	30 mins
7	Innocent until proven guilty	Helsinki	Through an interactive court case, where the audience will act as the jury, we will show the basics of how a court case and legal system works.	Unlimited Students only	H114	45 min.
7	Crimes of Fashion	St. Petersburg	It is near common knowledge that many clothing manufacturers engage in a host of questionable activities ranging from unethical to horrendous. Potential examples include child labor, unfair trade, human trafficking, and lack of environmental awareness. Through a series of hands-on activities with the audience the students leading this seminar will track the life of a commodity from manufacture to purchase, bring to light some of the most unsettling practices of major-brand clothing manufacturers, address the difficulties of being a responsible consumer, and offer alternatives and solutions to this seemingly inescapable dilemma.	unlimited	H015	45 min.
7	I cheat, You cheat	Prague 2	In this session define that elements best characterize evil. Then decide in a group discussion who is the greatest villain of all times.	10	H021	45 min.
7	Mock Trial	Warsaw 3	A fun way of looking at how the human behavior can create problems when examining a trial. Crime is no laughing subject, but giving an example of how things work when there are problems with the witnesses can show what any serious court case is like. This is a seminar that is very loose and has an interacting feel to it.	35 Students only.	H022	45 min.