

We at Free Spirit Publishing are delighted to express our support of the CD-ROM project Service Learning in International Schools. For over 27 years, we've been publishing learning tools that encourage young people to get involved in making the world a better place.

Our service learning resources enable and empower kids of all ages to be leaders and advocates for important issues in their communities and around the world. The Complete Guide to Service Learning: Proven, Practical Ways to Engage Students in Civic Responsibility, Academic Curriculum, & Social Action Book with CD-ROM (Revised & Updated Second Edition) by Cathryn Berger Kaye has become the go-to book for educators and youth organizers to introduce and advance this teaching method. Youth Service California called it the “bible of K–12 service learning” and the first edition was awarded the Council for Service-Learning’s Seal of Excellence. We are pleased to provide sample documents from the book, including reproducible forms that you can use with your students to assist with planning and organizing service learning projects. The book and its companion CD-ROM offer 90 such forms to help your school bring service learning opportunities to every student.

The document Choose to Make a Difference shows additional titles by Cathryn and other Free Spirit authors, such as The Teen Guide to Global Action: How to Connect with Others (Near & Far) to Create Social Change by Barbara A. Lewis. This book of real-life stories will inspire and engage teens in social action.

We have also included the book video for Cathryn’s most recent book, coauthored with Philippe Cousteau and EarthEcho International. Going Blue: A Teen Guide to Saving Our Oceans, Lakes, Rivers, & Wetlands educates young people about the earth’s water crisis and gives them tools and inspiration to transform their ideas into action. It is the recipient of Learning Magazine’s 2011 Teachers’ Choice Award for the Family, a prestigious award based on the book’s educational value, originality, creativity, ease of use, high-interest level, and motivation for young people.
