

Counselors Creating Connections

CEESA Counselors Retreat: Bucharest, 2013

4-7 April, 2013

A retreat with a focus on learning through professional conversations

The CEESA Counselor's Retreat was established to provide a professional development event where professional conversations and interaction are an integral part of the experience.

The goals for the conference:

- Bring together counselors to strengthen professional ties along geographic and subject interests
- Create a forum for sharing expertise
- Receive continuing education/professional development credit

Events include:

- Keynote forum with Dr. Joanne Coakley, director of the School Guidance program at Goddard College in the US.
- Workshops and discussions led by participants
- Subject area discussion groups

A 5-star setting for learning and sharing

The site for the retreat is the Carol Parc Hotel, widely considered the best 5-star hotel in Romania. A boutique hotel in an historic building, the hotel will be used exclusively by attendees during the retreat for which we have negotiated a deeply discounted rate. You can get more information about the Carol Parc by visiting their website at www.carolparchotel.ro.

Cost: €350 per participant, which includes:

- Hotel room
- Conference fees
- Breakfast, lunch, and coffee breaks on conference days
- Opening dinner
- Local transportation in Bucharest

Attendee costs are:

- Airfare to Bucharest
- Dinner on Friday and Saturday nights
- Incidental costs
