

Adaptive Schools® Leadership Seminar

For Aspiring Leaders and Individuals in Various School Leadership Roles

November 4-7, 2015 at the International School of Prague

Led by Michael Dolcemascolo and Dr. Fran Prolman

Sponsored by CEESA and the International School of Prague

This leadership seminar will develop the capacities of individuals (and organizations) to cohesively respond to the changing needs of students and the changing needs of society. Focused on leadership skills development, improved collaboration and increased capacity for teams to reach greater levels of success.

Visit www.thinkingcollaborative.com to learn more about Adaptive Schools workshops.

Costs include: 4-day seminar and refreshments & lunch at ISP!

CEESA Member School participants: $300

Associate Member School participants: $300

All Other School participants: $400

Contact Kathy Stetson, CEESA Executive Director, for more information at kathy@ceesa.org.

To register for this leadership workshop opportunity use this link

Register Link

Participants will stay at the Dolce Villa Hotel. Information will be available later this spring.